Secrets of the ZOHAR

The ZOHAR is an acknowledge source of great spiritual wisdom that is as ancient as the Bible itself.

Revealed to Moses as the “ decoder’ of the Bible, The ZOHAR was passed on as oral tradition until it was recorded as sacred text that remained hidden for thousand years.

From the Jewish writing - ZOHAR

“How many times in your life have you felt the desire to hurt someone, for the simple reason that they hurt you first?”

Whenever you try to enact vengeance, even if you truly feel it's justified, you create an opening for judgment to be enacted upon yourself.

But when you resist an impulse for reactive vengeance, you bring forgiveness and good will into your life.”

ZOHAR

“As Rav Aba sat by the gate of the city Lod, He saw a traveler standing near the edge of a cliff on the mountainside.

The traveler must have been weary from road, for as Rave Aba watched, he lay down and slept. While he was sleeping, a snake came toward him. Then a lizard suddenly appeared and killed the snake.

When the traveler awoke, he saw the dead snake and stepped back from the cliff. Just then the cliff was torn from the mountainside and fell to the valley below, but the traveler was saved. If he had awakened a moment later, he would have fallen to his death .”

ZOHAR

Rav Aba approached the traveler and said:

“What have you done that the Holy One, blessed be He, performed two miracles for you: saving you from the snake, and saving you from the falling cliff? For these events did not happen without a reason.”

ZOHAR

The traveler replied, “ In all my day, I forgave and made peace with any man who did evil by me. If I could not make peace with him, I did not sleep on my bed before forgiving him and all others who had aggrieved me, and I did not harbor hatred for any harm that had been done to me. Moreover, from that day on, I tried to do kindness by them. ”

ZOHAR

Rav Aba wept and said: “This man’s deeds exceeds those of Yosef, for those who injured Yosef were his brothers.

Assuredly, he should have pitied and forgiven them from brotherhood. But this man was forgiving of every one, so he is greater than Yosef and is worthy to have the Holy One, blessed be He, perform one miracle after the other for his sake.
